About the Institute

The Garware Institute of Career Education and Development (GICED) was founded by the University of Mumbai in 1984. The dynamic visionary, Late Padmabhushan Bhalchandra Digambar alias Abasaheb Garware was the founder of Garware Institute. GICED signifies the joint venture of educational institution and industry.

GICED was founded to design and conduct educational programs that could effectively prepare men and women for a career in all spheres of growing economy and initiative towards better use of human resource. The institute has maintained its commitment to provide innovation for students who plan to develop their career in various fields in the economy to meet its dynamic requirements.

The Institute was founded on Saturday, 27th October, 1984 and inaugurated by Hon.Shri Y. V. Chandrachud, Chief Justice of India. The regular Diploma Courses stared in August 1985.

Garware Institute has produced many professionals who are doing extremely well in their career. GICED has been in tourism training field for the last 28 years and trained people at various levels. Garware Institute offers the following types of programs.

Diploma Courses :-

Diploma courses are designed as under-graduate and post-graduate courses which help students to lead either in specific industry / service / government organizations and is tailored to its need in terms of both conceptual inputs and practical training.

As distinct from traditional academic courses, GICED's educational programs seek to meet the following needs:

□ To bring about greater linkage between general education and work oriented education and to enable students to apply their knowledge of theory, techniques and practice for their personal and organizational goals.

□ To give such orientation to education for appropriate employment.

□ To diversify education with a view to provide not only knowledge but also skills.

□ To impart intensive training and promote skills to increase prospects of employment of those who have passed the Higher Secondary or, Graduate Examination and even for open eligibility.

Mission of GICED

Goals & Objectives

The Institute has diversified aim and some of these are of national importance. The Institute aims to:

- □ Identify high growth sectors and set up facilities to meet future requirements of trained manpower in these sectors.
- Provide training facilities in those areas where special skills are required for efficient performance of the job.
- □ Provide an opportunity to learn job skills in an actual work-place environment.
- Experiment with innovative teaching techniques and analyze the results in a continuing effort to improve teaching standards.
- Undertake specific programs to meet the unique requirements of various segments of an industry.
- □ Set up a Career Guidance service to facilitate career choice through information dissemination, counseling and training.
- □ To serve society by staying in the forefront of higher education through dissemination of knowledge.

Messages from

Institute

Dr. Anil V. Karnik Director GICED. It gives me pleasure to write a few lines of invitation to our esteemed partners in Tourism & Travel Industry. Post Graduate Diploma in Tourism and Travel Industry Management (PGDTTIM) was started by the institute to meet the demand for trained manpower in this sector. Students are made aware of the basic components of the travel and tourism. Also the internship is treated as the key element of this course where the students are provided with an opportunity to work in leading companies of this industry. Thus the diploma holders of this course become suitable for employment and are widely welcomed by the travel and tourism sector. This sector is fast growing, not only in size but also in terms of talent required with each passing year.

We cordially invite the stalwarts of this industry to visit the institute to share their knowledge and experience with the students. We will be very pleased if they can offer suitable placements to our Post Graduate Diploma students, who are well trained and possess all the required qualities needed in Travel and Tourism industry. The institute is characterized by an excellent reputation, a team of competent and caring faculty and an ideal academic environment. On behalf of the institute, I reaffirm our commitment to create the top class manpower for which I am looking forward for the co-operation from one and all working in this field.

I wish good luck to both, the students of 2016 batch of Post Graduate Diploma in Tourism and Travel Industry Management (PGDTTM) and our Travel and Tourism Industry partners.

Ms. Jyotsna Patwardhan Course Coordinator After more than 30 years of conducting successful training programmes for tourism sector we present yet another group at Post Graduate level of young professionals who will be an asset to your organization. Keeping with the times and as per the system of regular updating of training we state that many new dimensions are added to the basic training. Apart from getting GDS training through computer network as an integral part of the syllabus we have also added many practical applications as part of the syllabus. Students conduct calls for sales and present itinerary options to various groups of students including the junior students, other college students and also some other International University students, covering a wide range of customer base. Such actual exercises expose GICED students to learn about the realities of understanding varied needs of the customers that forms a basis of tourism business. This gives a Global dimension to the students understanding. From early days of training, the industry has been our huge supporter. I hope like each year industry will extend similar support leading fruitful and successful placements this year.

Ms. Shilpa Borkar Assistant Director & Placement Head

Decades have passed and there has been a tremendous growth in tourism industry. It is one industry where one gets to see an excellent handholding of technology and human talent. I with all humility state that GICED produces one of the finest talents in tourism industry.

Ms. Anita Chandrasekhar Placement Coordinator

At Garware we have been imparting a very rigorous post graduate program which has been highly acclaimed due to its contents, distinguished faculties and high caliber of students who undergo this rigorous training. Students are trained to think, work through practical applications making them competent enough in the areas of travel and tourism business. I sincerely believe that the ultimate test of what a student learns has to be evaluated by the market. I, thereby encourage you to visit and provide placement campus our opportunities for yet another competent batch and also summer internship for our junior batch. Looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Ex-Garwarites messages

-Ashish Chitnis (Batch: 1997) AVP – Leisure; Mercury Travels Ltd.

GICED taught me geographical knowledge about tourist destinations, domestic and international. The projects that I had done as a part of my academics have enabled me to gain immense knowledge, enhance my communications skills, built my confidence & provided me with sales insight.

- Rajul Bid (Batch: 2001) Director – Elite Hotels & Resorts, Myria Holidays

- Garware shapes a person's career by providing in depth knowledge about India as well as the world & various products of the tourism industry. It also provides practical training through internship & gives an individual an opportunity to face challenges with confidence.
- Thanks to GICED today I have started my own business & it's running successfully.

-Amit Shirshath

Sales Executive in Ottila International -Pan India

- Garware Institute is the only place where we get an opportunity to get placed in reputed travel firms through campus interviews and training.
- This course is an amalgamation of practical training and theoretical knowledge with an on job internship which is the USP of the course.
- I completed my diploma in 2008. In my 8 years of experience in Travel Industry, I have learnt about Escorting, Inbound Operations, Outbound Sales and even got a chance to travel abroad.

-Viraj Guhagarkar FIT-Sales Executive & Tour Manager in Veena World

- The design of this course i.e. classroom training & Industry training is excellent way to create a professional required for tourism industry.
 - Various projects & activities during classroom training involves lot of research, this helped me to cultivate habit of searching the information on own. Over the period this has helped me to upgrade my knowledge about destination sightseeing and activities constantly. The presentations done of the projects help to develop self confidence. All of these factors helped me become a successful professional that I am today.

- Zoheb Jivani (Batch: 2010) Branch-in-Change SOTC Tours (Santacruz Branch) GICED has been consistent to produce professionals. Apart from giving us knowledge they also focus on practicality which is essential for the students as it gives us confidence at the time when entering the industry.

- Janhavi Rane (Batch : 2008) Incharge, Product Management – Signature Holidays The two years spent at Garware Institute attaining my Post Graduate Diploma in Travel and Tourism Management have by far been the best formative years for someone looking to develop a career in the field of Tourism. The course is extremely comprehensive, covering in-depth all aspects that one should be aware of, this coupled with a fantastic faculty who constantly ebb you to give nothing less than your best effort only added to strengthen my position in this field. I truly believe this course helped me improve my communication skills through the many presentations, debates that we undertook, gained valuable information on different aspects of International & Domestic Tourism, enabled and empowered me to question, be confident, take up new challenges, work as a team and most importantly think out of the box!. Without Doubt, "Garwareites" are looked upon with immense respect and admiration in the Industry and I feel proud to be associated with such an esteemed Institute.

Case Study: Sports Tourism in England

Sport tourism is a fast-growing sector of the global travel industry and equates to $7.68 billion. England has a strong sporting heritage, and during the 19th century codified many sports that are now played around the world. At club level, England is recognized by FIFA as the birthplace of club football. Last year above 9, 00,000 people from different countries watched a live football match in England thus resulting into a boost of about 700 million Pounds to the country's economy. Through this research work of mine I am trying to showcase a niche kind-of tourism in England exclusively for sports enthusiasts.
